JANE'S TIMELY GARDENING TIPS

Hi there, I'm Jane the gardening person. I've been in the gardening arena for many years, on TV, radio, writing in magazines and taking garden tours. The big thing I love is plants of all shapes and sizes, edibles, indoor, fruiting, ornamentals... they are all so fascinating. They keep me involved, because without them, where would our world be?

Every so often I will give you my impression of some plants that my friend Di has in her catalogue. Enjoy.

- Jane Edmanson

MULCHING... DO OR DIE!

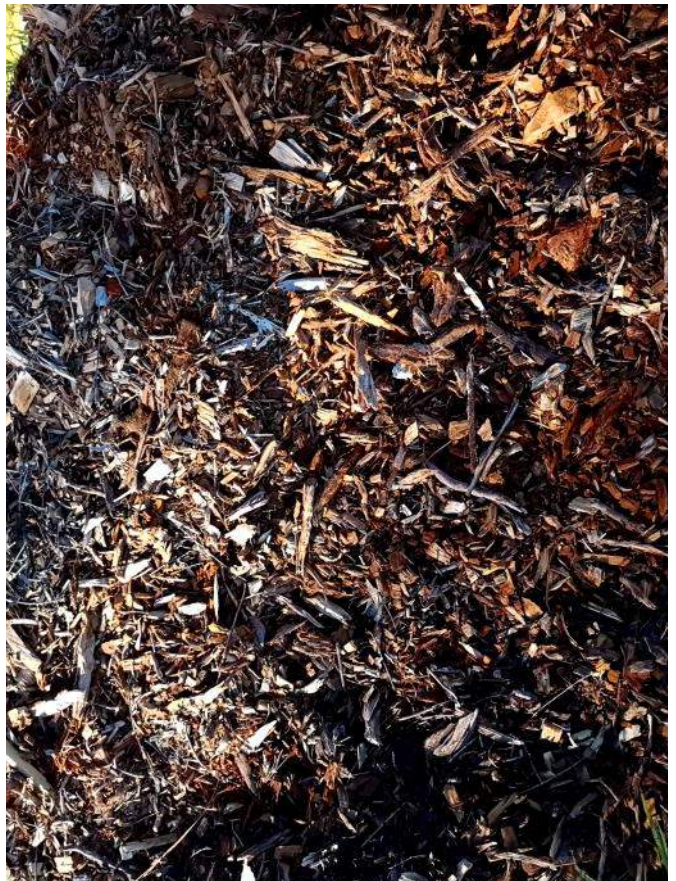

Mulching regularly is an essential tool for a low-maintenance and waterwise garden. Mulch protects the soil and roots of plants from summer heat and wind, as well as conserving water. By helping to prevent soil and plants drying out, the use of mulch can reduce watering significantly. This is achieved by reducing surface evaporation and helping water to penetrate the soil better.

Mulching also reduces weeds.

A 70mm layer of mulch will reduce weed seed germination and smother existing weeds, which compete with garden plants for water and nutrients. Mulching helps to regulate soil temperature, keeping the soil and roots cool in the warm weather and warmer in the cool weather. In summer if the soil is kept cool, earthworm and soil microbial activity can continue.

Mulch adds organic matter to the soil as it breaks down. This helps to improve structure, availability and utilization of nutrients.
